Dr. Jean Addington, PhD, named Fellow

Dr. Jean Addington, PhD, is one of four UCalgary faculty to be named Fellow of the Royal Society of Canada (RSC). Addington is an internationally recognized researcher, educator and leader in schizophrenia, early psychosis and early prevention of serious mental illness. “The University of Calgary is tremendously proud of our newest fellows,” says Dr. Ed McCauley, president and Fellow of the RSC. “This is a great honour, reserved for those scholars who have reached the highest levels of academic achievement in our country.” Addington holds the Novartis Chair in Schizophrenia. She is a member of the Hotchkiss Brain Institute (HBI), the Mathison Centre for Mental Health Research and Education and ACHRI. Congratulations Dr. Addington! Read more.
Dr. Catherine Lebel, PhD, recognized

Dr. Catherine Lebel, PhD, is one of two UCalgary faculty members named to the College of New Scholars, Artists and Scientists. The College is Canada’s national system of multidisciplinary recognition for the emerging generation of Canadian intellectual leaders. Lebel has established an international reputation for outstanding research in pediatric neuroimaging. "These scholars are making remarkable advancements in the early stages of their careers, and UCalgary is honoured to support them in their continued pursuit of excellence," says Dr. Ed McCauley. Lebel holds the Canada Research Chair in Paediatric Neuroimaging and is a member of HBI, ACHRI and the Owerko Centre. Congratulations Dr. Lebel! Read more.
